

Now Open in Westfield Bondi Junction...

Peep Toe is thrilled to announce their new store now open in the exclusive Fashion Precinct, Westfield Bondi Junction.

Now an iconic brand with over 150 stockists worldwide and a hugely successful online boutique, this is Peep Toe's third store opening in just over two years.

Designed by renowned architect Malcolm Borrell, whose client portfolio includes M.A.C and David Jones, Peep Toe Bondi Junction will become the ultimate shopping destination for discerning shoppers of footwear and accessories.

The half million dollar fit out will show case the new flagship store's opulent boudoir interiors, which are set with rich textures like velvet quilting, plush wool carpet and an Italian marble floor combined with a breathtaking 1.6m wide crystal chandelier which features as the centrepiece of the new store.

With its one of a kind 'Peep Toe' sign made from thousands of sequins hung at store front and a 50's movie star dresser lit up by a frame of iridescent bulbs shipped from New York, Peep Toe Bondi Junction is complete Hollywood Glamour.

Located on Level 4 and set to open late August 2009 alongside iconic designers including Jayson Brunson, Chanel and Louis Vuitton.

With a fan base of loyal celebrity clients including: Sarah Murdoch, Miranda Otto, Jennifer Hawkins, Nicky Hilton, Kristy Hinze and The Veronica's.

Peep Toe will continue to be recognised as the next fashion accessory authority, making it's mark in Westfield Bondi Junction.

www.peeptoeshoes.com.au